DEDICATION

We, the Seniors of South Girard High, seeing our high school life in retrospect, pause to acknowledge a debt that we owe to our parents and the parents of all South Girard High students. By work and sacrifice you gave us our opportunity of gaining an excellent high school education. We know that you are deeply interested in the studies and activities of your boys and girls. We hope that in looking over this yearbook, you will perhaps recapture some of the glamour of your own school days and at the same time gain a fuller understanding of the studies and recreations of South Girard High School. For this reason and because we know that our family life and our school life are closely linked, we affectionately dedicate our 1957 annual to you—THE PARENTS OF SOUTH GIRARD HIGH SCHOOL.

(Mrs.) B. S. Merrinseth

ADMINISTRATION

To the faculty and students:

Congratulations on a most successful school year at South Girard High School. I am certain that your splendid yearbook accurately reflects the hard work and sincere devotion that combined to make your school year successful.

May your remarkable will to achieve success in whatever you undertake continue.

Again I say thank you for all your cooperation.

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

TO THE PARENTS:

We express our thanks and gratitude to you for your faithful endeavor in helping us to overcome all difficulties. By your work and sacrifice we have had a successful year. Your devoted efforts characterize your interest in the school. For all of this we are deeply grateful.

TO THE STUDENTS:

As we come to the close of another school year, I want to congratulate each of you for the part you have played in making this a successful one.

I HOPE:

That you have attained a wider understanding of the human, mechanical and economical world about you.

That you are having the type of school experiences in which you will grow in self-direction, in facing responsibility and in carrying plans through to completion and in an ever expanding horizon of understanding the world.

TO THE SENIORS:

Let this commencement mean the beginning—the beginning of new eras and new adventures. The school has tried to give you training in critical thinking and evaluation of facts . . . Now you must act.

We wish you success in your endeavors. Remember you reflect credit or discredit on your Alma Mater at all times, so always be on the alert.

CLASS SONG

Alma Mater we're leaving,
Our stay with you has ended
But the years we've been with you have been enjoyed
We will miss our loving teachers
And our dearest friends.
We'll think of you wherever we go.

Through these corridors our foot steps
No longer will they pass.
In the classes our voices
Will not ring, but the memories
Of ole South Girard forever will last;
Praises of you forever we'll sing.

South Girard, We love you
South Girard, we'll love you always.
Tho' we circle the earth
You'll be with us in our hearts
South Girard we'll love you always.

CLASS POEM

This treasure that we're looking for
Is very hard to possess.
Many men have striven for it,
But very few have stood the test.

This treasure we are looking for
Is worth much more than gold,
Gold can be taken from us,
But this treasure we'll forever hold.

There are those who are firmly against us
And are trying to change our mind,
They may push our desires aside
But this treasure we're determined to find.

To find this treasure we're looking for,
Takes much hard work and frowns;
This treasure we are looking for
Is not buried in the ground.

This treasure we are looking for
Is not too far away.
This treasure we are striving for
Is ours to own someday.

This treasure we are looking for
Is very hard to possess.
This treasure we are looking for
Is the treasure of success.

CLASS HISTORY of 1957

By

M. MERCER, T. J. CLIATT, AND A. HARRIS

September 8, 1957, the smiling faces of teachers, and the happy students began strolling down the corridors of success again, with one thing in mind, a prosperous school term. At that time in the door appeared several students discussing their vacation. These students became the class of 1957.

During our Freshman year our homeroom teacher was Mrs. H. M. Richmond, who was very gentle and refined. There were fifty students enrolled. The students who continued throughout our senior year are as follows:

Margie Mercer, Velma Dixon, Dorothy Henry, Tommie J. Cliatt, Milburn Kimber, Jimmie M. Chambers, Osie Thomas, Virginia Jackson, Carrie Ezekiel, Mary A. Brown, Alene Harris, John Ford, Myrtis Austin, Katie Sanks, Mary Jakes, Otis Morgan, and Olin Morris.

The following year we became Sophomores. Our homeroom teacher was Mrs. M. Galloway. We were more than pleased to welcome such students as:

Lincoln Cochran, Ronella Thomas, Selettha Blackman, Eunice Jones, Barbara Thomas, and Louise Henry.

Next year we became Juniors. We were happy to have our dynamic teacher, Mrs. Galloway to follow us. There were sixty students enrolled. We welcomed such students as:

John Sutton, David Pitts, Wilburn Evans, and Zack Stephens.

Then we organized our class club. The officers were: John Ford, President; Jimmie Jenkins, Vice President; Margie Mercer, Secretary; Tommie J. Cliatt, Asst. Secretary; Otis Morgan, Treasurer.

This year was one of the most exciting years, because we were looking forward to the Junior-Senior Prom. Our class colors were "Lavender and Rose," our Motto was, "Success," our Theme was, "If Music Be the Feast, Play On." The prom was held in the school auditorium, featuring Spot Rivers Band. A special song, "Stardust" was played for the Juniors and "A Tear Fell," for the Seniors. Also during our Junior year we were victorious in defeating the other classes in winning the title, "Miss Blue Streak." Miss Eunice Jones was our contestant. Also during this year several members of the class impersonated our faculty members on chapter program. It was a very intelligent and comical act.

Now we come to the fourth and final historical part of our high school career. We were named "Sophisticated Seniors." With this epithet, we became more outstanding and serious about our tasks we had to perform. There were thirty-two students enrolled. A combination of eighteen girls and fourteen boys.

We welcomed the following veterans to our class: Lawrence Davis, Arthur Butler, Rafferd Gibson, Willie Fluellen, and Robert Logan.

The organization of the Senior Class was remarkable, the following officers were elected:

John Ford, President; Osie Thomas, Vice President; Dorothy Henry, Recording Secretary; Margie Mercer, Corresponding Secretary; Ronella Thomas, Financial Secretary; David Pitt and Mary Brown, Treasurers; and Willie Fluellen, Marshal.

Again we conquered the epithet, "Miss Blue Streak." Our contestant was Miss beautiful Velma Dixon. She rode in one of the most sparkling convertibles, a 1956 Pontiac.

Students who continued throughout our Senior year are as follows: Margie Mercer, Dorothy Henry, Carrie Ezekiel, Alene Harris, Milburn Kimber, Jimmie Chambers, Osie Thomas, Virginia Jackson, Jimmie Jenkins, Velma Dixon, Tommie Cliatt, Mary Brown, John Ford, Myrtis Austin, Katie Sanks, Mary Jakes, Otis Morgan, and Olin Morris.

We were fortunate to have one of our beloved Senior Class members, John Ford as a news commentator to broadcast every Saturday over Station WCLS in Columbus, Georgia at 11:30 A. M. During our senior year, we were also prosperous in winning the second place in Miss Peach Blossom contest. Miss Eunice Jones was our distinguished contestant.

In our final decision the class of 1957 is the most sparkling and remarkable class of all times.

RC makes you feel like NEW!

Why do so many folks choose RC? They've compared Royal Crown Cola with the other leading colas and found that RC is best by taste-test! Try it yourself. We think you'll agree!

Remember, you get 2 full glasses in the king-size bottle.
